

UNESCO King Hamad Bin Isa Al-Khalifa Prize for the Use of Information and Communication Technologies in Education

2022 Guidelines

Theme: The use of public platforms to ensure inclusive access to digital education content

The deadline for nominations: 23 January 2023

Contents

Who can apply?	1
Eligibility criteria	1
Selection criteria	2
For Candidates: How to submit an application and ask for a nomination?	2
For Nominating Entities - National Commissions for UNESCO and NGOs in official partnership with UNESCO: How to nominate?	4

2022 theme

The 2022 edition follows immediately the release of “Call to Action: Assuring and improving quality public digital learning for all” during the Transforming Education Summit (TES) in September 2022, which reaffirms that the digital revolution must be harnessed to ensure the provision of quality education and lifelong learning as a public good and a human right for all, with a particular focus on the most marginalized. The 2022 edition, therefore, focuses on three keys to universal public digital education, rewarding projects that have made public digital learning platforms and digital content universally accessible, developed digital competencies for all teachers and learners, and promoted universal connectivity in education.

Who can apply?

Individuals, institutions, non-governmental organizations or other entities

Eligibility criteria

- The project should be ongoing for at least for 1 year
- The project and its organization should not be affiliated to UNESCO or receive any funding from UNESCO
- The technology tools used by the project should be open and free

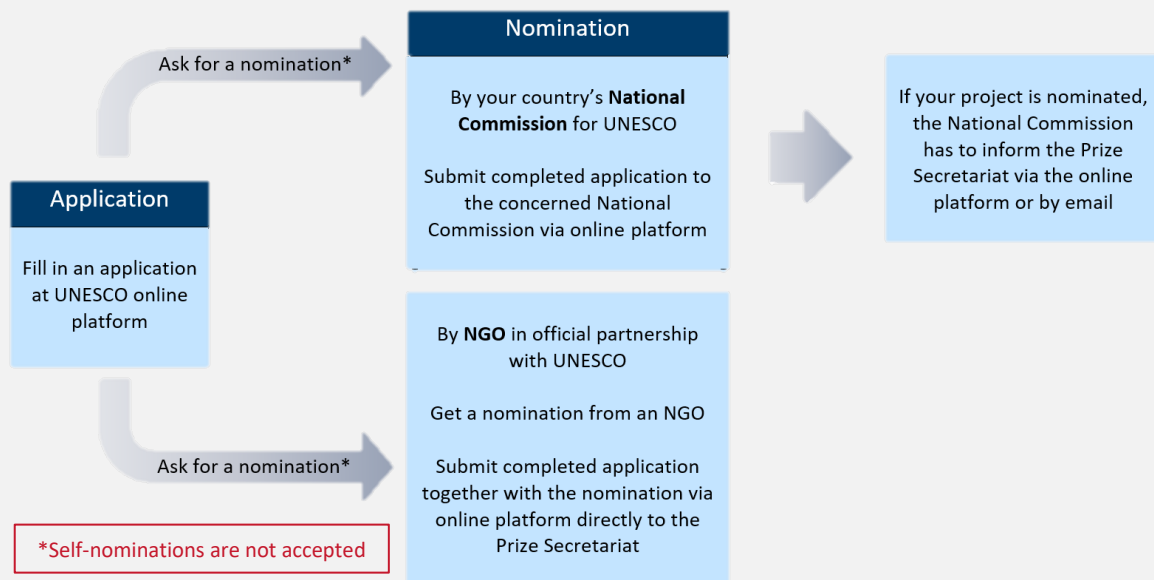

Selection criteria

- Relevance to the Thematic Focus: The project is in line with the objectives of the Prize and is relevant to the specific theme of the year
- Innovation: The project applies innovative technologies to provide affordable and inclusive tools
- Evidence of Impact: The project should provide evidence of improved overall learning performances of the targeted beneficiaries
- Potential for Replicability and Scalability: The project should show evidence that it can be replicated in other contexts or have the potential to further optimize and scale its impact
- Inclusion and Equity: The project should use innovative technologies to advance inclusion and equity in education, while taking into account marginalized groups, learners in crises and emergency contexts, and learners with disabilities

NOTE: The Prize is not a grant scheme to support new projects or organizations. The Prize is aimed at recognizing already implemented projects and activities or individuals/institutions/organizations for the creative use of technologies in education, teaching, and learning.

For Candidates: How to submit an application and ask for a nomination?

1. Contact nominating entity: If your project/programme meets the criteria, please get in contact as soon as possible with an appropriate nominating entity to inform about your interest in applying for the Prize.
 - List of National Commissions for UNESCO
 - List of NGOs in official partnership with UNESCO
2. Create your account: Request a user account and indicate through which entity you will apply at : www.unesco.org/ict-ed-prize/register

3. Go to the online platform accessible at www.unesco.org/ict-ed-prize and start filling in the online application form in English or French.
4. Present your project/programme in a clear and structured way, following the instructions given in the form and respecting the indicated word limit. All supporting materials (e.g. publications, photos, videos) must be transmitted electronically through the online system.
5. Ensure that your project is nominated

If you want to be nominated by your country's National Commission	If you want to be nominated by an NGO in official partnership with UNESCO
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Fill in the application and submit it via UNESCO online platform for review and possible nomination of the concerned National Commission ➤ If selected, the National Commission will provide the nomination via UNESCO online platform and submit it to the Prize Secretariat ➤ Please note that a National Commission can nominate only up to 3 submissions We strongly recommend: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> * Contact your country's National Commission already while filling in the application * Some countries may have the national selection process and internal deadlines for submission. This is why it is essential to get in contact with the relevant National Commission from the very beginning of the application process in order to submit your application in line with the National Commission deadline and guidelines. 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> ➤ Identify an NGO in official partnership with UNESCO ➤ Provide this NGO with information about your project and ask for a nomination ➤ Receive a nomination (in form of a letter) and attach it to your online application ➤ Submit the application to the Prize Secretariat via UNESCO online platform

Please note that self-nominations cannot be considered. Any submission form not nominated by the National Commission or an NGO in official partnership with UNESCO will not be accepted by the Secretariat.

Difficulties in reaching an appropriate nominating entity: please contact the Prize Secretariat.

For Nominating Entities - National Commissions for UNESCO and NGOs in official partnership with UNESCO: How to nominate?

- 1. Screen your candidates: Inform all involved stakeholders and set up a selection committee or panel to screen the candidates.
- 2. Nominate up to three candidates: Select the three best candidates, whose projects are in line with the 2022 edition theme. You are encouraged to work with the candidates to prepare their submission forms.

National Commission for UNESCO	NGOs in official partnership with UNESCO
➤ National Commissions can access the platform with their generic UNESCO accounts. To access the nomination form, the National Commission should: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Follow the link provided to the application or access the online platform here: www.unesco.org/ict-ed-prize • On the login page, enter the username (natcom.yourcountryname@natcom.unesco.org) • Enter the password associated with the UNESCO account of the National Commission. ➤ A National Commission can also initiate the process of nomination and submit an application on behalf of a candidate ➤ To nominate a candidate, the National Commission should edit the online form by entering a written recommendation in the appropriate fields, in English or French, and explain why the project of the candidate deserves the Prize (max 350 words). * If due to technical problems, the National Commission cannot access the online platform to provide the nomination, it can issue a nomination letter or inform the Prize Secretariat by email.	➤ If solicited by a candidate and wishing to submit the nomination, you should provide a nomination letter to be attached by the candidate to the online form ➤ An NGO can also submit an application on behalf of a candidate. To create and fill in the application, please see the guidelines for candidates.

Should you require any clarification regarding the application or nomination process, please directly contact the Secretariat of the UNESCO King Hamad Bin Isa Al-Khalifa Prize for the Use of ICT in education at UNESCO: ictprize@unesco.org

We look forward to receiving your nominations!