

Call for Applications SEAMEO CECCEP Writing Fellowships

Proposal Deadline:
22 March 2024

Fellowship Period:
1 April to 22 November 2024

photo: pexels.com

SEAMEO CECCEP

Term and Condition:

1. The grant awardees will be associated as fellows at the centre for the period of seven months, from 1 April to 22 November 2024
2. Applicant should submit the following documents:
 - Letter of application
 - Complete CV
 - Research Writing Proposal for Writing Fellowship program
 - Screenshot on targeted journal website, including information on the h-index and Q position (Q1-Q4)
3. The guidelines for submission
 - The paper must be written in English
 - Letter of interest
 - The research writing proposal should be structured as follows:
 - abstract, keywords, a brief literature review, methods, brief discussion of preliminary results, preliminary bibliography.
4. The topic of research writing proposal should match the theme and flagship of SEAMEO CECCEP, which include:
 - Promoting Children's and Families' Well-Being in Southeast Asian Region
 - Children Access and Participation to Quality ECCE
 - Anti-Bias Education in ECCE and parenting
 - Holistic and Integrated ECCE
 - Other related themes on ECCE and parenting, preferably in Southeast Asia countries
5. The applicants have to submit their proof of manuscript submission by 18th October 2024.
6. The research fellowship is non residential in nature and entails no financial responsibility of SEAMEO CECCEP except for the Writing Grant that is payable upon the completion of the first final draft (see point 5 above). However, the awardees might use office space including internet access in SEAMEO CECCEP.
7. As a fellow, the grant awardee is expected to engage with, and contribute to, activities organised by SEAMEO CECCEP in general.
8. The documents referred to in point 2 including the research writing proposal should be sent to SEAMEO CECCEP no later than 22 March 2024.
Please send your documents to: info@seameo-ceccep.org
9. These grants will be awarded to 5 five selected individuals. Each awardee will receive IDR 10 million.

As December 2024, all articles are expected to have undergone reviewed and receive at least minor revision status.